NEWS AND COMMENT.

THE Farmers Alliance now have five tobacco warehouses in this State.

SOUTHWARD! THE EMPIRE TAKES ITS COURSE.—Baltimore Manufacturers' Record.

HENRY M. STANLY, the great African Explorer, has been heard from again, and that's about all that can be said of it.

HAYTI has grown tired of war and temporary peace has been declared between the Legitime and Hyppolyte factions.

BOOTH, the celebrated actor, has been stricken with paralysis and it is uncertain at this writing whether or not he will ever appear on the stage again.

A GAME of "grab and get there" seems to be the policy of the Western Union of late, which illustrates the audacity and impudence to which a corporate monopoly can attain.

POOR MURAT HALSTEAD! Experience is sometimes a dear lesson, and the celebrated bloody shirt waiver from the Buck Eye State is now paying dear for past luxuries. Alas.

IT has leaked out in Washington that there is "war in the district camps, and dissentions without end among the Republicans throughout the country over the awarding of spoils."

A Pennsylvania protectionist has fallen heir to Minister JARVIS' Brazilian shoes, and JIM BOYD, of Guilford, has about realized the full force of the shoek, from which he is rapidly recovering.

IT is rumored in Paris that the Government will issue a decree of banishment against BULANGER. But BULANGER still holds a "stiff upper-lip," saying he will never submit to a trial by the Senate.

LIVES have been lost and hundreds of people made homeless and property worth hundreds of thousands of dollars destroyed by the great prairie fires in Dakota, Minnesota and the North West, last week.

FIRST-ASSISTANT Post Master General CLARKSON is getting in his dirty work pretty well, and Democratic Railway Postal Clerks are "hitting the ceiling" for Republican pets. Civil service reform, oh, thou art!

THE Herald has had an interview with RICHARD CROKER, the invincible Tammany chief, who thinks the Democratic party has "once more launched her barque on the political waters with all sails set and the breezes fair."

THE Democratic "tidal wave" commenced on the 3rd with the Cincinnati municipal election and ended with the election of a Democratic Governor for little Rhode Island. In Chicago the Democrats made a clean sweep.

IT is authoratively announced that Secretary WINDOM will follow in the "footsteps of Secretaries FOLGER MANNING and FAIRCHILD in the matter of the silver coinage, at least until Congress or the President directs otherwise." The Pacific slope remains to be heard from.

THE New York Star exclaims in exultant tones that the "Republican defeat in St. Louis has cast a faint gloom over Administration circles in Washington. It was certainly an unexpected return for General HARRISON'S compliment in giving a Cabinet office to a Democratic State.

THE President of the United States has issued a proclamation calling on the people to abstain from work on the 30th of April, 1889, for a day of thanksgiving in honor of the formal organization of our government founded one hundred years ago and the inauguration of the first President of the United States.

"CURFEW did not ring out" for HALSTEAD and he has been heard from through his paper, the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, because a Republican Senate refused to confirm his nomination, and thinks the result "may lead to a line of thought, or increase the line to a force of thought, that will abolish the United States Senate altogether, with its star chamber proceedings." Aus armes, Murat.

OFFICE-SEEKERS are making it warm for HARRISON. Indeed they have been so persistent in their attention to the President that whenever he wished to enjoy a quiet chat with a friend he slipped out through the private part of the house and putting his friend into a carriage would drive about the city for an hour or two, while the place hunting fraternity cooled their heels in the White House corridors.

THE Wilmington Star has celebrated another semi-annual birthday and with the lapse of time continues to shine with increasing brilliancy. No paper is read more closely at this office, and one of the oldest and most substantial citizens of Fayetteville about voiced our sentiments the other day when he said: "The Wilmington Star is my paper. It has few equals in this State, or the South, and having read it for many years it suits me exactly."

REPLY.

MR. EDITOR:—I see in your issue of the 28th, a communication over the signature of "J. E. H." on the subject of the "Blue and the Gray," the tenor of which I cannot endorse. Twenty five years ago our country was the scene of mortal combat between the two respective uniforms as above referred to, but those days have passed, and throughout the length and bredth of our land peace reigns supreme. The widow has well nigh found surcease for sorrow, and while the vacant chair of the absent son may not be filled, yet the void in the aching heart of the childless mother has by the gentle influence of time ceased to gnaw like a canker or sting like an adder. We live in a common country. We have a common interest, to-wit: The upbuilding of our country, developing her resources, and to make her what she is soon destined to be, the most powerful country under the sun of Heaven. Many of those who wore the blue have made their homes with us, are nearly allied with the interests of our people. They live among us. In war they were brave and generous, in peace they are courteous and kind. Their interests are now our interests and vice versa. Then why does the writer of that article insinuate that the colors under which they fought is emblimatical of all that is fiendish and base. We admit that in the Federal army there were cutthroats and scoundrels, men devoid of principle, but these are to be found in every army. The writer was too young to have participated in that war but he believes that the principles which were contended for by the boys who wore the gray were just and rightous but it was a lost cause, our brave men sacrificed their lives in its behalf, but all in vain. We have been forced back into the Union, there let us remain, and instead of reviving these harrowing scenes, let them forever rest. Let him who wore the blue grasp the hand of him who wore the gray, and between them let there be that bond of union, unity and love, so escential to the prosperity of a country and let the sorrowful scenes of the past be enveloped by the veil of forgetfulness, and on the ruins of our lost cause erect an alter of hope and on that alter sacrifice all sectional hate and personal feuds. REBEL.

How the Laws are Made.

Edward Alton in the Routine of the Republic.]

The laws are published in various forms. They are first published separately in sheet form, as "slip laws," as soon as possible after being received by the bureau, and numbered in the order of their receipt. When so published, the slip laws are given to the editor of the laws (a competent person selected from the legal profession by the Secretary of State and privately employed for that purpose), who notes marginal references to previous legislation, arranges the acts and resolutions by "chapters," and prepares a suitable index; and under his editorial care, at the end of the session of Congress, they appear again in pamphlet form, as "session laws." Lastly, at the close of a Congress, the laws of each session are gathered by the editor into a single volume and bound, as Statutes-at Large." The numerous readings given to the printed "proof," and the careful comparison with the text of the originals, effectually guard against discrepancies. The manner in which the Department performs its duty is thoroughly creditable; the manner in which Congress dismisses its own work is, in many instances, absolutely disgraceful. Some of the rolls received at the Department are disfigured by erasures, interlineations, and blots, by errors in orthography, capitalization, and punctuation, and by hieroglyphic mangling, that suggest the "master-pieces" of schoolboy art. These and the more serious imperfections, once placed upon the parchment roll, are law. However glaring the blunder, however mischievous the distortion or omission, the State Department is powerless to add a correcting dot or stroke. Mistakes made by Congressional enrolling clerks have undone legislation accomplished by Congress after hours of debate. An item of half a million dollars for public purposes was bodily left out in the enrollment of a recent appropriation act; and the substitution of a comma for a hyphen in transcribing a tariff-measure some years ago caused a loss to the Government of thousands of dollars before the error was detected and further loss arrested by the passage of another act. These are but specimen cases. It is humiliating to think that a sleepy or incompetent clerk should be able to frustrate the legislative will of a nation, and startling to reflect on the opportunities for fraud by deliberate tampering with the public rolls. Blemishes enough are engrafted upon our statute books by the legislators themselves, in the shape of careless or unwise enactments; surely, if we cannot always have clear statesmanship, we should have at least clear penmanship in the parchment record of our laws. The blame, like the remedy, rests with Congress.

"Turn the Rascals Out."

(Albany Times.)

One of the remarks of the famous Persian sage and premier Nofli Ezonhim, at a time of revolution in the Shah's palace, when the rather aged sultana was turned out on half pay, was, "Turn the rascals out."

Some of the Ills Which Afflict the Agricultura Industry and Oppress the Farmers.

By Maj R. L. Ragland, of Hyco, Va.

COMBINATIONS AND TRUSTS.

By far the most extensive combinations effecting injuriously the rights and interests of the producing class are the railroad combinations. Under the winsome plea of opening up rapid and cheap transportation needed between important points and extending it over every portion of this vast country as the necessities of the people and trade demanded, the incorporators were granted "the right of eminent do main" to condemn and use private property largely belonging to agriculturists "for public use," and thus were chartered great lines of railroad.

Enterprise opened up line upon line and thus created competition which for a time brought freight charges down to reasonable rates, and in some instances caused heavy cutting in rates, which for a time was used to the benefit of shippers. The railroad war waxed fierce and was continued in some instances till railway stocks went down, down and not a few went into the heads of receivers—some through dishonest management. The extremity of all such was the opportunity of capitalists who bought up the stock and consolidated road after road, purchasing the right to do so in some instances through venal Legislatures, till now the transportation of the country has centered into a few great railroad lines where remorseless capital regulates freight tariffs and discrimination is made in favor of trusts and combinations and against individual producers, and largely in favor of long and against short hauls. In other words, capital is favored in being conceded cut rates while producers pay full charges.

There is hope, however, of reaching these soulless corporations chartered by the Legislatures of the people for puplic use in exacting from them adequate returns for the special priveleges granted them and by law requiring them to fix reasonable and fair freight tariffs and impartially to pro rate per ton per mile for five thousand miles. And this will be surely done when the right choice is made of representatives to execute this much needed reform.

TRUSTS.

Of all the combinations of men and capital ever concocted into conspiracies to prey upon honest business and avocations of man and fleece from him his means and hard-wrought earnings, trusts, so-called, are the most reprehensible because the most powerful far-reaching and remorseless. They endanger the peace and good order of society and tend to provoke strife and violence by perpetrating monster wrongs against the people and the peace of society. And if speedy legislation does not reach and curtail or nullify their powers for mischief trouble dire will be provoked and at no distant period.

Combinations and conspiracies to increase the cost of the people's meat and other necessaries of life have ever been a fruithful source of demoralizing and exasperating the people and provoking violence.

Nothing but a sense of duty prompted by patriotism, we trust, causes us to write thus plainly on a critical as well as distasteful subject. We are no sensationalist but sound the warning breakers ahead. Let the grew manning the ship of State take warning in time.

We would gladly look on the bright side if there was one, but confess our main hope is in the sturdy sense and forbearance of our agricultural people till they can organize to grapple with and abate tyrahical organizations falsely called trusts. Let them do so and set to work to restore peace, plenty, prosperity and contentment to our suffering and distracted land.

"For what avail our unexhausted stores,
Our bloomy mountains and our sunny shores,
With all the gifts that heaven and earth impart,
The smiles of nature and the charms of art,
While proud oppression in our valleys reigns,
And tyranny usurps our happy plains!"

PUBLIC OPINION.

The Elizabeth City Economist affirms that Murat Halstead, the veteran editer of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, who is not to go to Germany as minister from this country, is a native of Currituck county, this State, "or one who traces his lineage to the home of the goose honk," and it calls on Ransom, Vance and all the rest of our Southern Senators—too late, though, for poor Halstead's purpose—"to stand by Murat because he sprang from the old banner county of Currituck that is bespangled with democratic glory."—Raleigh News and Observer.

The strikes continue in the North. Three were reported in yesterday's Star. This shows the disturbed condition of labor, and that the election of Harrison has rather accelerated than silenced the labor troubles. There is nothing really hopeful for the country in four years more of Radical rule and the Monopoly of the Money Devil.—Wilmington Star.

* * *

The South is now the most attractive field for investment and development in the United States, and one scarcely hears of the great Northwestern boom now-a-nays. But there are many portions of the South about which there are no inquiries, and that are unknown. These must advertise and boom as the points of present attraction have done.—Wilmington Messenger.

Blood Will Tell.

There is no question about it—blood will tell especially if it be an impure blood. Blotches, eruptions, pimples and boils, are all symptoms of an impure blood, due to the improper action of the liver. When this important organ fails to properly perform its function of purifying and cleansing the blood, imdurities are carried to all parts of the system, and the symptoms above referred to are merely evidences of the struggle of Nature to throw off the poisonous germs. Unless her warning be heeded in time, serious results are certain to follow, culminating in liver or kidney disorders, or even in consumption. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will prevent and cure these diseases, by restoring the liver to a healthy condition.

One by One the Roses Fall.

(Shelby Aurora.)

Mr. C. B. Ledbetter, a nephew of Col. Bennet and Democratic mail agent on Carolina Central Railway, has been thrown overboard and a Republican takes his place.

Washington at His Inauguration 100 Years Ago.

From a profusely illustrated series of articles on the Centenniel Inauguration in the April Century we quote the following: "Washington was dressed in a full dark brown cloth manufactured in Hartford, with metal buttons with an eagle on them, and 'with a steel hilted dress sword, white silk stockings, and plain silver shoe buckels. His hair was dressed and powdered in the fashion of the day and worn in a bag and soltair.' Chancellor Robert R. Livingston, one of the committee of five to draft the Declaration of Independence, thirteen years before, was dressed in a full suit of black cloth and wore the robe of office. Just before the oath was to be administered it was discovered that no Bible was in Federal Hall. Luckily Livingston, a Grand Master of Free Masons, knew that there was one in St. John's Lodge in the City Assembly Room near by, and a messenger was dispatched to borrow the Bible, which is to day the property of St. John's Lodge No. 1, the third oldest Masonic lodge in the United States.

"Secretary Otis of the Senate held before him a red velvet cushion, upon which rested the open Bible of St. John's Lodge 'You do solemnly swear', said Livingston, that you faithfully execute the office of President of the United States, and will, to the best of your ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States.' 'I do solemnly swear,' replied Washington, 'that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States.' He then bowed his head and kissed the sacred Book, and with the deepest feeling uttered the words, 'So help me God!' The Chancellor then proclaimed, 'Long live George Washington, President of the United States!' The discharge of thirteen cannon followed, and with loud repeated shouts and huzzahs the people cried, God bless our Washington; long live our beloved President!' The President bowed to the people, and the air again rang acclamations. Washington, followed by the company at the balcony, now returned to the Senate Chamber, where he took his seat and the senators and representatives their seats. When Washington arose to speak all stood and listened 'with eager and marked attention.

"After delivering his address, the President, accompanied by the Vice-President, the Speaker, the two houses of Congress and all who attended the inauguration ceremony, proceeded on foot to St. Paul's Church. The same order was preserved as in the procession from the President's house to Federal Hall. The military 'made a good figure' as they lined the street near the Church. The services in the church were conducted by the Chaplain of the Senate, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Samuel Provoost, Bishop of the Episcopal Church of New York.

"After prayers had been read and the 'Te Deum' was sung, Washington entered the state coach and was escorted home."

Columbia Register.]

Mr. Charles Baybon of Memphis, a friend, schoolmate and associate for many years of Dr. T. B. McDow, the slayer of Captain Dawson, has received the following letter from him:

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 18, '89.—Mr. Charles H. Bayboy—My Dear Sir: Your highly appreciated remembrance is at hand—what a treat it was to me. My heart went back to my old home and friends where I was so well and favorably known ten years ago. I have in no way, let me answer you, renounced the claim they hold upon me.

Taught from childhood to lisp the accents of truth, I can never eradicate them from my bosom, and let me assure you, I am neither a cowardly assassin, nor a self-confessed "rake and libertine." Actuated as I have ever been by a rectitude of purpose, I trust I have nothing to fear before an impartial jury.

I place myself before my God and my country for trial. I have done no crime. Your friend, T. D. McDOW, M. D.

Origin of the Term "Scotch Irish."

Wilmington Star.]

Our esteemed contemporary, the Raleigh Progressive Farmer, asks the Star or some other paper that "has ability to do so, to give the term 'Scotch Irish, as applied to the people who will meet the convention in the city of Columbia, Tenn., in May next." It says:

"As the 'books' give us no light as to how these worthy people obtained the seemingly contradictory name of Scotch Irish—two people who never could, by any possibility have intermixed to any considerable extent—our conjecture is that a Scotch-Irishman is a descendant of the Scotchmen who settled in the north of Ireland after William of Orange subjugated the country. He probably has no Irish blood in his veins and is only Irish to the extent that he was born on Irish soil."

That covers the ground. See extracts in an article in last Sunday's Star relative to the Scotch Irish. See Rumple's history of Rowan county and Foote's Notes.

A Boy's Composition on Girls.

The following amusing composition written by some one of the smart youths of Carthage and which was doubtless intended to be read at school was picked up by a Blade reporter:

"Girls is strange animals, not so big as their mammas, least ways they aint till they get grown. Most of them are awful stuck up and wears bussels and corsets. Their bussels is bigger'n they is and I never could see no good in 'em, cepten to set down on. Girls think they mighty smart and they get grown at 12, and chews chewing gum and looks sorter like a cow chewing her cud. Some girls is pretty and some is ugly, mostly ugly. But all of them thinks they is pretty and puts on airs and powders and paint and wants to get married. Girls aint got much sense cause they love boys and boys dont care nothin' bout them. I'm mighty glad I aint a girl cause they can't go swimming and have fun like boys. And this is all I know bout girls, cept my girl and she' a daisy."

To dream of a ponderous whale,
Erect on the tip of his tail,
Is the sign of a storm
(If the weather is warm),
Unless it should happen to fail.

Dreams don't amount to much, anyhow. Some signs, however, are infallible. If you are constipated, with no appetite, tortured with sick headache and bilious symptoms, these signs indicate that you need Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. They will cure you. All druggists.

Don't hawk, hawk, blow, spit, and disgust everybody with your offensive breath, but use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and end it. 50 cts., by druggists.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable For a great many years Doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly upon the blood and mucus surface of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

UTTERLY SURPRISED!

MERIDIAN, MISS., July 12, 1887.

For a number of years I have suffered untold agony from the effects of blood poison. I had my case treated by several prominent physicians, but received but little, if any, relief. I resorted to all sorts of patent medicines, spending a large amount of money, but yet getting no better. My attention was attracted by the cures said to have been affected by B. B. B., and I commenced taking it merely as an experiment, having but little faith in the results. To my utter surprise I soon commenced to improve, and deem myself to-day a well and hearty person—all owing to the excellent qualities of B. B. B. I cannot commend it too highly to those suffering from blood poison. J. O. GIBSON,

AFTER TWENTY YEARS.

BALTIMOR, April 20, 1887.—For over twenty years I have been troubled with ulcerated bowels and bleeding piles, and grew very weak and thin from constant loss of blood. I have used four bottles of B. B. B., and have gained 15 pounds in weight, and feel better in general health than I have for ten years. I recommend your B. B. B. as the best medicine I have ever used, and owe my improvement to the use of Botanic Blood Balm.

LEGAL NOTICES.

VALUABLE HOUSE AND LOT For Sale!

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Cumberland County made a Special Proceeding, entitled E. J. McGuire and Sarah E. McGuire, by her next friend, ex-parte, I will sell to the higest bidder at public auction at the Market House in Fayetteville, that valuable house and lot on the south side of Moore Street in said town, and known as the "McGuire place." Time of sale, Monday, May 6th, 1889, at 12 M. Terms, cash.

HENRY L. COOK,
April 3, 1889.—ts] Commissioner.

To the Public.

My financial troubles have been such that I have been forced to suspend business on my own account. But, as Agent for one with whom I have made satisfactory arrangements, I shall conduct for him the butchering business at my former stand—stalls Nos. 1 and 2 in the market. This change of circumstances and business relations compels me to require cash for all purchases or to decline to sell to any except those who will pay on presentation of bills.

It is out of my power to do otherwise, and I trust that a generous public will appreciate my condition and the necessity that drives me to this course, and that they will give the new business a liberal share of their patronage. Respectfully,
W. H. TOMLINSON, Ag't.

ANOTHER "STRAW."

As "straws tell which way the wind blows" the recent elections in St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Columbus and Evansville prove that the popular protest against Republican methods is universal. The Democratic victory in the Lake Metropolis is truly significant and most beautifully illustrates the fact that the friends of law and order place their dependence on the conservatism of the progresive Democracy. Nothing indicates this more clearly than the fact that the people of Chicago have said by their own acts that they are willing to trust their defense against anarchy to the Jeffersonian element that protects popular rights and social freedom when and wherever it reigns, while capitalists realize that property is secure when contented labor is not tempted to assail it. The machine that has just been broken in Chicago could never have accomplished the work of conciliation and justice that will now be done.

The New York Star asserts with emphasis that "the election of GOODLET, Democrat, as Mayor of Evansville, and as his associate candidates on the Democratic ticket, after an uncommonly hot contest, is a protest from HARRISON'S State against the policy of HARRISON and against the suppression of the prosecution of violaters of the election laws."

In Schenectady, a little town in the Empire State, that gave HARRISON a majority of 107 votes last November has gone Democratic by a majority of 300, which fact carries its own emphasis.

The Star further indulges in the belief that "the most obvious and general conclusion from recent local contests in all sections is that the great industrial vote of the country has been released from the spells and allurements of a tricky and corrupting canvass, and has reverted to its natural association with the Democratic party," and further asserts that "this is the master key to the extraordinary situation that has subjected the new Administration of 1889 to a rebuke more sudden and sweeping than any party in power has experienced since the war."

The Star is not alone in this belief and this fact of itself is becoming more generally known every day.

Let there be a grand Rally of the citizens of Fayetteville in Town Hall, Tuesday afternoon, April 16th at 4 o'clock.

WILLIAMS OF CUMBERLAND.

One of the crowning acts of Senator Williams career in the last State Senate was his soul stirring speech in behalf of the Confederate pension bill. Those who heard Mr. Williams on this occasion say his speech was overflowing with patriotic sentiment toward the crippled braves and full of the keenest sarcasm for the enemy of the appropriation. Round after round of applause greeted his well finished remarks. In the midst of his speech, however, one poor, unfortunate Senator saw fit to treat him with contempt by groaning. Then it was that the gallant "Sycamore from the Cape Fear" excelled himself and pointing the finger of scorn at the intruder, said; "your feeble and contemptible cries will not throw me off my guard; I have heard groans before, amid the roar of cannon, the rattle of musketry and the clash of the sabres, while such as you were crouching behind the 20 negro act."

It is needless to say that the most deafening applause resounded then throughout the halls of the capital for five minutes following these remarks, and the Senator from Cumberland came out with flying colors.

Remember the time and place,—Town Hall, Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Friends from the country join us.

A PERMAMENT DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

A movement is on foot for the organization of a permanent democratic club in this city. We commend it heartily. We should enlist the interest of every well-wisher of the democratic party and attract to the membership of the club in prospect every active democrat in Raleigh.—Raleigh News & Observer.

If our memory serves us right, Wilmington has taken steps in the direction above named, and has set an example well worthy to be emulated by other towns throughout the length and breadth of the old North State. Fayetteville should no longer remain silent on this important matter, and the Democracy of the Cape Fear section and Cumberland county in particular should be thoroughly intrenched behind the bulwarks of tariff reform.

As Senator Vance so eloquently says, "tariff reform is obliged to come, and it is only necessary that Democrats should maintain their integrity and stand square up to their principles, and not attempt to straddle, qualify or evade." Now who will take the initial step and call a meeting of our citizens, with the view to organizing a permanent Democratic Club in this city? Our columns are open for a discussion of the feasibility of the project and for a call to be made as well.

CARRY THE NEWS DOWN THE LINE.

The OBSERVER'S suggestion a short time ago to have a grand celebration in this city November next, commemorative of the Centenniel Anniversary of the ratification of the Federal Constitution by North Carolina, has indeed struck a popular cord in the hearts of our people and spread over the State like wild fire on a western parairie; until to-day the subject is the leading topic for conversation throughout the length and breadth of the land. Thus the importance of swelling is proportions to a State affair are made apparent. Indeed it is an event that should kindle the fires of patriotism in every true Carolinian's heart, from the rolling hills and smiling valleys of the West to the briney lashed shores of old Ocean's deep, and gather upon this sacred soil on that eventful day, the patriotic sons and fair daughters of the Old North State, from centre to circumference.

Verily the gates of the Capital City of the famous Cape Fear stand ajar to the tens of thousands of people who will assemble here in November, 1889, to pay homage to the sires and solons of a century ago.

FIRST MONTH'S RECORD.

A brief outline of the history of President Harrison's nominations and how they have fared at the hands of the Senate is not without interest to the general public. Of the 350 nominations sent to the Senate during the special session by President Harrison the following were rejected:

Murat Halstead, to be minister to Germany, Isadore S. Loventhal, to be Postmaster at Modesto, Cal.

The following remained unacted upon (and therefore died) at the end of the session:—

William H. Whiteman, to be Associate Justice of the Territory of New Mexico; Edwin I Kersheedt, to be Marshal for the Eastern district of Louisiana.

Postmasters—Kittrill O. Halders, at Minot, D. T.; Carl C. Crippen, at Eustis, Fla.; Burt C. Drake, at Gainsville, Fla.; Robert F. Bebout, at Rushville, Ind.; Geo. E. Nicholson, at Ness City, Kan.; Samuel C. Moore, at Findlay, Ohio.

President Harrison's nominations were contained in 284 messages. During the special session of the Senate at the beginning of President Cleveland's term he sent to the Capitol 418 messages; eighteen of his nominations failed to receive confirmation, but there were no rejections.

There are in other States and territories over 300,000 North Carolinians and descendants of North Carolinians, and there never has been half the racket raised over that fact, nor about the exodus of whites annually, as there has been over the departure southward lately of a few black cotton-field hands. Strange, but it is a fact.—Twin-City Daily.

It is a fact, and, as the Daily says, a strange one. White folks leave the State annually in squads of dozens, fifties and hundreds and the fact scarcely excites any comment; but when our colored friends start to go there is talk about calling out the State Guard, and the officers of the law are set upon the emigrants. Is that a mistake about blood being thicker than water.—Statesville Landmark.

Many of the North Carolina editors of late have aparently for the time being, lost their senses on the "negro exodus" question. The negros are "free white and twenty-one," so to speak, and if they choose to seek a more congenial climate it is their business and not ours. If they can get along without us we can get along without them. We entertain no unkind feelings, however, for the colored man so long as he remains in our midst and behaves himself. Though we have been told that it has been found neecssary in some instances in this county to garnishee the Treasurer for the collection of poll tax from certain colored teachers.

"GIVE US A REST."

Elsewhere appears a communication by a "Rebel" that we think better represents the feeling of this section towards those who wore the gray in the late unpleasantness than that of "J. E. H." in our issue of the 28th inst. To think as one pleases, however, is one of the irailenable rights of man in a free country like this, and therefore we have no apologies to offer for "J. E. H." If he thinks as he writes, it is his privilege to do so, and it is the privilege of others to differ with him. We think there is little to be gained, however, by attempting fight over the battles of '61 to '65 on paper. The verdict has been rendered. Fate was against us. We fell, but we have the proud consolation to know that we went down with our faces toward the enemy. We love and cherish in our hearts to-day, as we did years and years ago, the cause for which our fore fathers fought, bled and died, but in so-doing it does not follow that in time of peace we should abuse those who, living in a different latitude, saw duty from a different standpoint. And while our columns are open for the discussion of all questions, yet we hope our friends will "give us a rest" on the "blue and the gray," and let us turn our attention in the direction of developing our inexhaustable resources, the upbuilding of our waste places and the utilization of our unlimited water powers.

☞ Remember the meeting in Town Hall, Tuesday, April 16th, at 4 o'clock, P. M.

News From Harnett.

MR. EDITOR:—I had occasion to ride in the country a few days ago, and I saw plows turning the soil in every field. The farmers are exceedingly busy just now. They seem to have everything necessary to the production of profitable crops. When I noticed large sacks of guano piled up in the fields ready for use, I thought how much our farmers would save if they would only make their own fertilizers. Let them do this and make their own meat and bread on the farm, and the death of the mortgage system will be the inevitable result.

I learn that a proposition looking to the discharge of the Lilly debt, will be submitted to the voters of the county along with the question of removing the county seat from Lillington to Dunn. This election will be held on the second Tuesday in May next. A lively canvass is expected.

I wish now to say something about Dunn, a little town of remarkable growth with the most encouraging prospect for a bright and prosperous future. Its people are clever and substantial; its business uniformly good; and withall, it is one of the finest cotton and turpentine markets in the State. The town's population will probably reach 375.

The proposition to make Dunn the capital of Harnett, is receiving the support of prominent men in every section of the county. The measure, however, will encounter very bitter opposition on the other side of the river. The people of Averasboro township are to bear the expense of the election, and the friends of the movement are to build the jail and court house should the removal be adjudged. A lively canvass seems inevitable.

Great interest is manifested in the question of building a bridge in this county across the Cape Fear. The R. R. company agree to defray half the expense incident to this work, and it is not improbable that the county will accept the generous offer and pay the balance. So it is safe to say that the Cape Fear will not long be the cause of two unconnected divisions of the county.

Our county has several very nice little towns among which Dunn, situated on the Wilson and Fayetteville R. R., is the largest. It has, people say, about 500 inhabitants. The capital, which, was originally Summerville., is now Lillington, a little village, pleasantly situated, and full of good and progressive people.

The county is said to be filled with tramps. They are now stealing and begging all they can from the people. No further news just now.

Godwin Items.

Reported for the Observer.]

This is a small place on the W. & F. R. R., and is a beautiful situation.

We have only two stores and they are run by Messrs. A. McNeill & Son, and D. A. C. Denning. They do a good business.

The farmers are busy preparing for planting. Prospects look very bright for the farmers this year.

We are convenient to the railroad. Our clever agent, Mr. R. H. Holland, is ever at his post. He is well be-liked by both R. R. Co., and the people around Godwin.

Mr. P. Hawley, J. P., has moved to this place to make peace between man and man. We gladly welcome Mr. Hawley to our midst.

The Christian Aid Society, of Godwin, is now in a flourishing condition; we have about forty members.

There will be a Sunday School organized at this place soon. There is also a Lodge of Good Templars that number now about sixty members. They are doing a vast deal of good in the community. We bid them God's speed.

The new church at Black's Chapel is nicely painted. Rev. J. J. Barker is the rector.

Mr. E. L. Rhodes and Miss C. A. McNeill were married the 27th of March. May their pathway through life be strewed with fragrant flowers. W.

Spout Springs News.

Reported for the Observer.]

Mr. John A. Cameron, of Ghio, Richmond county, paid this section a flying visit this week.

Miss Peggie Cameron, of Barbecue, was buried at Cameron's Hill, last Tuesday week.

Mr. N. McArthur, of Spout springs, fell through a hole in the floor of the planing mill recently.

Some slight sickness in the neighborhood, but none of a serious nature.

March blew itself out yesterday and April has come at last.

The Williams' Lumber Company at Manchester is going right ahead with their work. They pay their hands with checks, but they are not like some checks, for the merchants about there will take them the same as money, in fact one merchant said they were as good as gold.

Farmers in this section are preparing to plant, but I have not heard of any who have planted as yet.

MAXTON DEPARTMENT.

Reported for the Observer.]

Last week, owing to the scarcity of news, you did not hear from me.

On Friday and Saturday of last week we had terrific forest fires in every direction. A fire on Saturday created a little excitement in town by boldly advancing to the very edge of town where our citizens met it and stopped its wild career.

A colored man went fishing last Thursday at what is known as the big trestle across Shoe Heel creek. He did not return and was found drowned on Sunday morning. It is supposed that he had a fit and fell in the creek.

I was in Lumberton yesterday and learned that the cotton factory will be built at that place. They are in earnest as their subscription list was swelling well in the thousands.

Mr. J. T. Smith has been appointed postmaster here and will take charge of the office in a few days.

Lumber Bridge Items.

Reported for the Observer.]

We have a Farmers' Alliance which is doing a good work in their line, and will doubtless bring forth good results.

We have a military company that is quite a feature in the military line, being one of oldest in the State. Col. Cameron, when he inspected them, complimented them very highly on their fine appearance and soldiery bearing. Capt. J. D. Malloy takes great pride in his company and it well merits the pride of the whole county.

Next to our churches our most useful institution is the High School, which, despite the measles, is in a flourishing condition. The principal, Mr. J. A. Monroe, was, we believe, one of the first teachers in North Carolina to introduce the improved methods of teaching, having begun same in 1872 while in charge of Faison High School. He also taught eight years in Winston Male Academy and five years as principal of Monroe High School coming from that point to this place last August. The orderly and docile students, and facility by which perfect discipline can be enforced, make it quite a pleasant school. We doubt whether, for thorough work and effective discipline, this school can be surpassed. The sexes are as separate as if in different schools. It is a High School in fact as well as name, there being between 20 and 30 Latin pupils, &c. The Music Department, under Mrs. Monroe, is an attractive feature and is doing fine work. But for measles this school would doubtless number 100 pupils.

Dr. F. H. McLeod, late of South Carolina, though originally of this county, is our physician, and though a young man, is meeting with fine success and winning his way to a permanent place among us.

Dr. A. McKinnon, formerly of this place, has recently located at Chadbourn, where he will no doubt build up a fine practice. He is a worthy young man, and well qualified.

Our farmers are quite busy at present but the genial showers now descending will doubtless give them leisure. We are behind in the breeding of improved stock but must awake to this important industry.

SCRIBLER.

Let all good Democrats take heart, and let Cleveland be not cast down. We met a politician the other day from way back, who was full of the next campaign. He said John Adams beat Thomas Jefferson, and then Jefferson turned around and beat Adams. John Q. Adams beat Jackson, then Jackson beat John Q. Adams. Martin Van Buren beat Wm. H. Harrison, and then Harrison turned around and beat Van Buren. Now, said he, after drawing a long breath, as Ben. Harrison has beaten Grover Cleveland, why may not Grover Cleveland turn around and beat Ben. Harrison?—Washington Gazette.

Twenty Pieces of Bone.

My little niece, left me by her mother, had one of the worst cases of white swelling I ever saw. More than twenty pieces of bone came out of her leg, one piece being about the size of the small end of a walking cane, and nearly three inches long. The hole left by taking these pieces out was as large as a good sized walnut. She was not able to walk a step for eight months, and was afterwards compelled to use cruthes for nearly a year. The doctors said there was no cure, and advised amputation of the limb. This I would not consent to, but put her to taking Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), leaving off all other treatment. It has cured her sound and well, and I shall never grow weary of speaking in its praise.

MRS. ANNIE GEESLING.

Columbus, Ga., Feb. 11, 1889.

The World Ought to Know It.

The world ought to know what S. S. S. has done for me in the cure of a malignant Cancer, which was so bad as to be considered in curable by the physicians in Chicago, where I went to be treated. The hospital surgeons gave me up, saying they could do nothing for me. One of my neighbors sent me a copy of an advertisement cut from a paper in regard to Swift's Specific, and I began taking it. I got relief from the first few doses; the poison was gradually forced out of my system, and I was soon cured sound and well. It is now ten months since I quit taking S. S. S. and I have had no sign of return of the dreadful disease. MRS. ANN BOTHWELL.

We hope to be able to publish in our next issue the act of the last General Assembly vesting the sureties of the late Neill McQueen with the power to collect taxes due for 1883-'84-'85-'86.

Our friends in the Northern part of the county tell us that West End is on a boom. The new depot is about completed, and five stores have recently been built at that place with other buildings in progress of erection.

The races at the Fair Ground race track Monday afternoon between Bledsoe and Vanstory, attracted quite a number of our people thither. The race was a half mile dash and won by Vanstory who made it in 55 seconds.

The Sanford Express learns that Capt. Murphey, freight conductor on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. met with rather a painful accident while coupling cars at the Gulf, having his left arm badly mashed. It was found upon examination by Dr. Palmer that there was no bones fractured.

ECCLE'S PARK.—The new shrubbery in Eccle's Park gives the place a more picturesque appearance, besides renders it more attractive to the passer-by. It is, indeed, an ornament to the city and one that our people should take even more pride in. Thus far most of the work has been done by and at the expense of a few.

PROF. TRAWICK.—By reference to our advertising columns it be seen that Prof. Trawick proposes to teach a select class of young ladies in higher English, natural sciences, History, Elocution, Rhetoric, Practical Arithmetic, Algebra, Geology and Latin, in this city in a few days. Prof. Trawick tells us this is a means by which he hopes to sooner or later establish a female college in Fayetteville; something long needed.

REMOVED.—Mr. Dan Galloway, railway postal clerk on the Wilson & Fayetteville R. R. has been removed for "bitter partizanship" (?) and succeeded by one Tom Broadfoot, colored, of this place. Also Dixie Gilmer, for some time postal clerk on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. between Mt. Airy & Bennettsville, has been asked to "take a rest."

PROVIDED WITH HOMES.—We have been authorized by the committee in charge to announce through the columns of the OBSERVER that all ministers of the Gospel attending the Pearson meetings to commence here on the 28th of April, will be provided with homes by applying in person or by correspondence to Dr. J. W. McNeill, Ch'm'n committee, or Revs. R. T. Gray, Jos. Wheeler, T. P. Barclay or L. S. Etheridge.

A FINE ADDRESS.—The address delivered in Williams Opera House by Rev. J. H Cordon of Raleigh, last week, on Odd Fellowship, has been praised in the highest terms by those who were so fortunate as to hear this powerful elocutionist. Mr. Cordon is a born orator and his effort here at the time and place above mentioned won for him the highest encomiums at the hands of our people, and his appearance in Fayetteville in the future on a similar mission will be hailed with delight.

A WELCOME VISITOR.—Maj. Chas. M. Stedman, of New Hanoyer, "the chief among the thousand and one altogether lovely," gladdened our sanctum last week with his beaming countenance and genial manners. He spoke in the highest terms of praise of Fayetteville's spirit of improvement, during which time he related some thrilling incidents in the town's past history. Come again Major, the Capital City of the Cape Fear extends a cordial invitation to enter her gates by day and by night.

AMENDMENT TO THE CITY CHARTER.—Fayetteville is progressing. The late General Assembly passed and act so amending the town charter that hereafter a nuisance to the public health of the town shall be considered a nuisance, punishable by a fine or imprisonment, or both at the discretion of the court, for each day it shall remain unabated. It behooves all good citizens to see that these laws are strictly enforced, for nothing is more important to the health of a place than its sanitary condition.

EVANGELIST PEARSON'S MOVEMENTS.—The Rev. Mr. Pearson has left Columbia for his home at Asheville. The Register says: "His reasons for this somewhat abrupt determination of his labors here for the spiritual awakening of the people, as stated by him, are that the local clergy, and more especially, local Christians failed to co operate with him in his work.

Though large crowds have packed the Opera House at each of his nightly meetings, less than a half dozen conversions have resulted from his efforts." This will serve as a "pointer" to illustrate the importance of "unity among the brethren,' here and elsewhere.

BETWEEN FAYETTEVILLE AND WILMINGTON.—Work on the Wilmington extension of the C. F. & Y. V. R'y is progressing nicely, and especially do we know this to be the case on the bridge over the Cape Fear River at this place. One pier has already been finished and another is nearing completion. In all there will be five piers, and the bridge will be 680 feet in length, embracing two spans of 150 feet each, and two of 180 feet each. It will be an iron bridge constructed without a "draw," 70 feet above the level of the water so as not to obstruct in any way navigation on the river, and will be completed by the first of August.

TO THE FARMERS OF CUMBERLAND.—In view of the large circulation the OBSERVER has among the farmers of this county, we have resolved to hereafter devote the fourth page of the paper exclusively to agricultural literature, and invite the farmers of Cumberland and adjoining counties to write articles every week on the subject of farming. By this means the tillers of the soil can get the experience of one another and profit thereby in many ways too numerous to mention here. Don't stand back now and wait for somebody else, but ventilate your own ideas and send them along. It is not necessary that your name be signed to the article for publication unless you so desire.

THE STORM OF SATURDAY AND SUNDAY.—To the present generation, the wind storm of last Saturday and Sunday will be long remembered.

At Norfolk, Va., the storm assumed the proportions of a cyclone, the wind blowing at the rate of 54 miles an hour, causing the tide to rise 18 inches higher at that port than ever before recorded. At the same time the city was visited by a $150,000 fire. But thus far heard from, Savannah, Ga., has sustained the heaviest loss, having been visited on Saturday with a $1,500,000 fire.

In Virginia and further North-West heavy snow and hail storms prevailed. At Raleigh snow fell rapidly for several minutes.

You are cordially invited to attend the meeting in Town Hall, Tuesday, April 16th inst.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.—Every day will be Sunday bye and bye, and you should therefore read without fail the announcements of Mrs. E. G. Spencer, "Ladies Bazaar;" K. Lewald, "Dress Goods;" S. Sheetz & Son, "Undertakers and Furniture Dealers;" C. M. & A. H. Watson, "Family Groceries;" W. N. Tillinghast, "Seasonable Goods and Drive Pumps;" Mrs. John Shaw, "Millinery;" McNeill & Co. "Easter Cards;" Prior & Cook, "Dissolution Notice;" A. Garrason, Jno. D. Davis, Rev. S. R. Trawick, Chas. Glover, W. B. Edmundson, C. G. Cain and OBSERVER Office, and H. R. Novitzky on Supplement.

CUP PRESENTATION.—Our highly esteemed townsman, Mr. H. R. Novitzky, is the happy recipient of a handsome silver cup, presented to him by the ladies of Hay street M. E. Church as a token of the high appreciation of Mr. Novitzky's valuable services in the rendition of that popular cantata. "Joseph." While it doubtless took some time to find "Benjamin's sack," it has nevertheless been discovered and our happy townsman is the proud possessor of "Joseph's cup." The inscription, "'Joseph' to H. R. Novitzky, by the Ladies of Hay street M. E. Church, February 22, 1889," is artistically carved on one side, and altogether makes a decidedly handsome present, and in after years when our jolly good friend has about concluded his journey in this life, it will serve as a lasting memento of the halcyon days of "Auld Lang Syne."

FOREST FIRES.—Forest fires have worked great damage to property in Rockfish township, this county, since our last issue. The fire started from Mr. Lewis Hardin's place about one mile below Hope Mills Friday last, and by reason of the high winds which prevailed, was soon beyond control and not until Monday morning were the devouring flames extinguished. A gentleman fresh from the scene of destruction tells us that hundreds and thousand of pannels of fence were burned to the ground, besides two dwelling houses, occupied by colored people, together with their contents. Also a few hundred turpentine boxes. The light of the fire was plainly visible from this point each night, and those who remember the terrible gale which prevailed in this latitude last Saturday and Sunday can form some conception of the rapidity with which the flames spread. The origin of the fire, we understand was purely accidental, as the wind was not blowing but very little at the time.

SMITHFELD IN ASHES.—Monday evening's mail from the north brought the news of a terrible conflagration at Smithfield the day before. The fire broke out about 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the midst of the raging gale which prevailed at that time thoughout the South Atlantic States. The fire is thought to have originated from the rear of Morgan Bros. carriage factory and by reason of the gale, spread with marked rapidity until fifty-eight buildings went up in smoke in the centre of the town. The scene of destruction is said to almost baffle description, and upon many, hopeless ruin is entailed. The burned area covers the territory from Morgan's store by the post office to the court house corner; all the court house blocks; the street opposite the court house from Sasser & Woodall's drug store, and Dannenberg's to and including Dr. G. J. Robinson's barn and stables, with his handsome flower garden and beautiful surroundings together with his apiary. The entire loss is estimated at $100,000 at the very lowest.

A BEAUTIFUL HOME LAID WASTE.—"Rosenvie," the tasteful and pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Lutterloh, on Haymount, about a mile from the Market-place, was entirely destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon at about 2:30 o'clock. The near neighbors hastened from every direction at the alarm, to find the roof of the south wing of the building already in flames; and the high wind prevailing at the time, the scarcity of water, and the distance from town, which rendered any service from the fire department impossible—all combined to make it evident in a few moments that the dwelling was doomed. The strenuous efforts of the considerable crowd, white and colored, which had by this time assembled, succeeded in saving a large part of the household effects; but a great deal of value—carpets, pictures, table service, etc.—were buried under blazing rafter and broken wall.

Nor could the lovers of the beautiful bear unmoved the spectacle of the destruction wrought upon the lovely ornamental grounds surrounding the residence, or refrain from the deepest sympathy with her who had devoted years of culture to their expanding beauties, while the tender slip took on the grace of the flowering plant, and at last the vigorous stature of the towing tree. The flower yard about "Rosenvie" was planted many years ago:—the first systematic effort at landscape gardening in and around Fayetteville—and contained many rare and beautiful specimens of floriculture, brought to perfection by painstaking care.

The luxuriant japonica, the tapering fir, the stately magnolia, bowed their swaying limbs toward the whirling fire and smoke, as if careless of self sacrifice—now that the homestead they had beautified was falling into ruin; and then shrank and shuddered in leaf and limb and bursting bud as wreaths of flame clasped them about, and sent them in a moment on the wind—charred cinders and blackened twigs.

Our sincere sympathy is also extended to the absent members of the family—the "dispersed abroad" in the busy pursuits of industry—who will hear with a keen pang at the heart of the loss of "Rosenvie," the home of their childhood and youth. The fire originated from a vine that had become entwined about the chimney. The property was only insured for $2,000.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

A Call for a Meeting of the Citizens of Fayetteville to Take Action on the Approaching Celebration in November.

At the instance of numerous citizens, a public meeting is called to meet in the Town Hall, on Tuesday, the 16th inst., at 4 P. M. to take steps looking to a proper celebration of the centennial anniversary (on the 21st of November next) of the ratification by North Carolina of the Federal Constitution.

It should be made a grand occasion, and not a County but a State affair. To make it so let there be a large turn-out at this preliminary meeting.

DIED.

SCHLOSSBERG.—Departed this life at his home in Fayetteville, March 27, 1889, Mr. Maxamillion Schlossberg, aged about 40 years. Mr. S. was an active and industrious citizen of Fayetteville, where he had been residing for the past twenty years. He was noted for his generosity and sobriety and by his demise the town sustains the loss of a good and useful citizen. The high esteem in which he was held was attested by the large concourse of people who attended the burial ceremonies.

LEE.—Died, at his home in this city Friday morning April 1st, 1889, Mr. Jas. R. Lee, aged about 60 years. The deceased was among the oldest citizens of Fayetteville, and was conspicuous in the manufacture and sale of cotton before and up to the close of the war. Since that time he has been leading rather a quiet life, and at the time of his death enjoyed the respect and esteem of the citizens of the community in which he had so long resided. Peace to his ashes.

BOLTON—In this County, on the morning of the 1st ult., Mrs. MARY BOLTON, relict of the late Peter Bolton. She leaves a family of eight sons and two daughters and a large number of grand children to mourn the loss of a pious mother. She had been a consistent and exemplary member of the Presbyterian church for the past sixty years, having joined China Grove Church at the age of eighteen years. The last years of her life were attended with much bodily affliction, which she bore with Christian patience, consoling herself with the prayer, "Lord, thy will not mine, be done."

A large congregation testified their respect to the memory of the dead by attending the funeral at St. Andrew's Church, where an impressive sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Wheeler of the M. E. Church, Fayetteville.

FRIEND.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, Cross Creek Lodge has again sustained a loss by death, and another brother, MAXIMILLIAN SCHLOSSBERG, has been gathered to his fathers; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Schlossberg this body recognizes not only a loss to itself, but to the community of which for 24 years he has been an active, worthy citizen, earnestly engaged in business pursuits, faithful to every trust and demand made upon him, true in every relation of life, and carrying beneath a seemingly mirthful exterior a heart that beat for others' woes, and whose sympathy in time of need consisted not of meaningless words, but of acts of kindness, which will perpetuate his memory as long as the recipients may exist.

Resolved, That as a body we deeply sympathize with his bereaved family and tender to them our heartfelt commisseration in this time of sorrow.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, a copy be sent, under seal of Lodge, to the family of deceased, and a copy to the FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER with request to publish

DE JINGLE OB DE BELLS ON DE COWS.

EDWARD A. OLDHAM.

In de spring, when de fields are all kivered wid green,
An' de clover bloom smells in de a'r,
An' de wet in de grass kinder tickles yer feet,
An' de red bug mek er nigger sw'ar,
Den am de time dat de darky lubs de mos'
When dey come erlong home 'hind der plows,
In de cool of de day, when dey hears all erroun'
De jingle ob de bells on de cows.

When de jimpson weed pops up outen de groun'
An' de dog-fennel runs it er race,
An' when de lightnin'-bug do scatter roun' its sparks,
An' dabs 'em now an' den in yer face,
Den comes de music dat am sweetes' an' bes'—
At leasten dat's how dis darkey 'lows,
As softly dar ripples froo pastures o' green
De ringin' ob de bells on de cows.

When the bluebird comes wid er straw in its beak
To de hole whar de woodpecker bored,
When red-breasted robins hunts erroun' fer der mud,
When the black swallow swings in de gourd,
Den f'om de old meadow 'way down by de crick,
Or de orchard neaf young apple-boughs,
Steals gently de musical sound dat we lub—
De tinkle ob de bells on de cows.

When de sun goes down in er thick clump o' pines,
When de frawg in de swamp 'gins to croak,
An' de whipperwill jines wid er doleful chune,
While de ole owl hoots in de oak;
On de sof' breeze dat comes loaded down wid its swe ts
From de meadow whar slick cattle browse,
Dar floats wid er freshness dat nebber gits ole,
De jingle ob de bells on de cows.
